ON the 15th Inſtant King Philip ſent from St. Ildefonſo the Marqueſs de Grimaldo, his Councellour of State and his principal Secretary of Diſpatches, with a Packet for the Prince of Aſturias who had returned the Day before from St. Ildefonſo to the Eſcurial. The Marqueſs arrived there at 11 a-Clock in the Morning, and having acquainted the Prince with his Meſſage, his Highneſs ſent for the Infantes to come to his Apartment, and alſo ordered the following Perſons to be ſent for thither, to be Witneſſes of what ſhould paſs, viz. The Count de Altamira, the Marqueſs de Valero, the Duke de San Pedro, the Count de Salazar, the Marqueſs de Magny, the Count de Saſateli, (which two laſt were Mayordomos for that Week,) and the Prior of San Lorenzo: Who being all preſent, the Marqueſs delivered the Packet to his Highneſs, who returned it to him opened that he might read what was in it, which was a Renunciation of the Crown by the King his Father in favour of his Highneſs, accompanied with a Letter to him. When the Marqueſs had done reading, they all kiſſed the new King's Hand, though they were filled with Concern for what they had heard. The new King ſent to deſire Leave of his Father to pay his Duty to him and kiſs his Hand, but it was not granted; nor was his Offer made at the ſame time, to let the Life-Guards continue to attend their Majeſties at St. Ildefonſo, accepted: However, the new King thought fit to Order, that a Guard of twelve Men with an Officer and a Cadet, ſhould keep at Balſain for the preſent, to be at Hand in caſe of any unforeſeen Accident. Donna Maria de las Nieves Angulo, Lady of Honour to the Queen, formerly Governeſs of the Infanta Queen of France; and Doctor Don Joſeph Cervi, the King's chief Phyſician; remain with their Majeſties at St. Ildefonſo. King Philip having in the Evening of the ſame Day he ſent the Marqueſs de Grimaldo to the Prince at the Eſcurial, ſent his Renunciation in Form likewiſe hither to the Preſident of the Council of Caſtile; the ſame being read the next Day (the 16th) in that Council, was forthwith made Publick. The 19th the new King and Queen came from the Eſcurial hither about Seven at Night; the Road for ſome Diſtance from the Town, and the Streets in the Way to the Palace, being lined with Coaches of the Nobility and Gentry, and crowded with People who made joyful Acclamations. The 20th the King and Queen went publickly, with the uſual State, to the Church of our Lady of Atocha. The 21ſt his Catholick Majeſty held his firſt Cabinet Council; and has ſince been preſent daily in that Council, which is held every Morning, but not till after Ten a-Clock, that the Preſidents of the other Councils may aſſiſt at it. His Majeſty has made the Duke de Montellano, the Duke de Popoli, and the Marqueſs de Cogolludo eldeſt Son of the Duke de Medina-Celi, Gentlemen of his Bed-Chamber. On the 29th Don Miguel Franciſco Guerra, ſitting in the Cabinet-Council, was taken ſuddenly with a convulſive Fit, which has ſince returned upon him twice, yet he is ſaid to be in a fair way of Recovery.

Copy of the Letter written by King Philip the Vth to his Son King Lewis, from St. Ildefonſo the 14th of January 1724.

IT having pleaſed the Divine Majeſty through infinite Mercy, my well beloved Son, to make me ſenſible for ſome Years paſt of the Nothingneſs of this World and the Vanity of its Grandeurs, and at the ſame time to raiſe in me an ardent Deſire of eternal good things, which without any Compariſon ought to be preferred to thoſe of this Earth, which God gave us only to be conſidered in that View; I have judged, that I could not make a better Return to the Favours of ſo good a Father, who calls me to ſerve him, and who has beſtowed on me through my whole Life ſo many Marks of a viſible Protection, by which he has delivered me as well from the Infirmities that he has been pleaſed to lay upon me, as from the difficult Occurrences of my Reign, during which he has protected me and preſerved the Crown againſt ſo many united Powers who attempted to wreſt it from me; than by ſacrificing to him and laying at his Feet that Crown, to think only of ſerving him, to bewail my paſt Offences, and to render my ſelf the leſs unworthy to appear in his Preſence, when he ſhall be pleaſed to call me to his Tribunal, much more tremendous to Kings than to other Men. This Reſolution I have taken with the greater Ardour and Joy, becauſe happily for me I found the Queen, whom God has given me for my Spouſe, entertain at the ſame time the ſame Sentiments, and determined with me to trample under Foot the Nothingneſs of the Grandeurs and periſhing good things of this Life. We have therefore ſome Years reſolved, both of us with one Conſent, by the Favour of the moſt Holy Virgin Mary our Lady, to put this Deſign in Execution, and I now ſet about it the more chearfully, becauſe I leave the Crown to a Son whom I love with the greateſt Tenderneſs, who is worthy to wear it, and whoſe Qualities give me certain Hopes that he will diſcharge all the Duties of a Dignity, much more terrible than I am able to deſcribe it. Yes, my beloved Son, make your ſelf ſenſible of all the Weight of that Dignity, ſtudy to perform all that it requires of you, rather than ſuffer your Eyes to be dazled with the flattering Splendour of what ſurrounds you. Think, that you are not a King on any other Condition, than to ſee that God is ſerved, and that your People are happy: That you have above you a Lord who is your Creator and Redeemer, who has heaped Benefits on you, to whom you owe all that you have, and to whom you owe even your ſelf. Employ your Vigilance therefore for his Glory, and exert your Authority in whatever may tend to promote it. Protect and defend the Church, and the Holy Religion, with all your Might, and even with the Hazard, if need be, of your Crown and of your Life: Spare nothing that may ſerve to extend it even to the moſt remote Countries; deeming it a Felicity incomparably greater to have them under your Command for propagating the Knowledge and Service of God in them, than for the Extent to which they may enlarge your Dominions. Prevent as much as poſſible Offences againſt God in all your Kingdoms; and uſe all your Power that he may be ſerved, honoured, and revered by all that ſhall be ſubject to your Dominion. Preſerve ever a great Devotion to the moſt Holy Virgin, and put your ſelf as well as your Kingdoms under her Protection; ſeeing you cannot by any other Means better obtain what may be needful for you and for them. Be always, as you ought, obedient to the Holy See, and to the Pope as the Vicar of Jeſus Chriſt. Protect and defend ever the Tribunal of the Holy Inquiſition, which may be call'd the Bulwark of the Faith, and to which it owes its Preſervation in all its Purity in the Dominions of Spain; ſo that the Hereſies which have afflicted the other Parts of Chriſtendom, and produced ſuch horrid and deplorable Ravages in them, could never be able to get Footing here. Bear Reſpect always to the Queen, and conſider her as your own Mother, not only as long as God ſhall continue my Life, but after my Death, if it be His Will to take me firſt out of this World, anſwering as becomes you the affectionate Friendſhip ſhe has conſtantly ſhewn you; be careful to ſupport her that ſhe may not want any thing, and that ſhe may be reſpected as ſhe ought by all your Subjects. Love your Brothers, looking on your ſelf as their Father, ſince I ſubſtitute you in my Room; and give them ſuch Education as is worthy of Chriſtian Princes. Do Juſtice equally to all your Subjects, high and low, without Exception of Perſons. Defend the low againſt the Violences and Exactions that may be ſet on foot againſt them. Redreſs the Vexations the Indians ſuffer. Eaſe your People as much as you can, and in ſo doing ſupply what the turbulent Times of my Reign would not permit me to do, and which I moſt ſincerely wiſh I had done, in Return to the Zeal and Affection which they have always ſhewn for me, which I ſhall always keep impreſſed on my Heart, and which you ought ever to bear in Mind. To conclude, have continually before your Eyes two holy Kings, who are the Glory of Spain and of France, St. Ferdinand and St. Lewis: Theſe I propoſe to you for your Example, and they ought to move you the more, becauſe you are illuſtrious by their Blood, as they were great Kings and at the ſame time great Saints: Imitate them in each of thoſe Glories, but may their Example lead you chiefly in the laſt, for that is the Eſſential one. I beſeech God with my whole Heart, my well-beloved Son, to grant you this Grace, and to endue you with thoſe Gifts which ſhall be neceſſary to you in your Adminiſtration; that I may have the Conſolation to hear it ſaid in my Retirement that you are a great King and a great Saint. This will rejoyce a Father who loves and will ever love you tenderly, and hopes you will ever preſerve thoſe Sentiments towards him which he has hitherto found by Experience to be in you. I the King.

Stockholm, Jan. 8. The Weather proved ſo very boiſterous and wet all the laſt Week, that the King and Queen were obliged to quit Ulrichſdahl and return to Town laſt Friday; and it has ever ſince continued to blow and rain in ſuch a violent manner, as is very unuſual at this time of the Year. The latter End of October and Beginning of November it froze ſo ſharply, that the Ice was paſſable on moſt of the Inland Lakes; but ever ſince, the Weather has been ſo mild and open, that Buds and even Leaves have within a few Days begun to come out on ſeveral Trees; which kind of Weather ſo unuſual in this Climate, occaſions many Diſtempers to rage at preſent in this City and all its Neighbourhood, tho' hitherto they are not obſerved to be very dangerous.

Stockholm, Jan. 15. This Day Sennight at Night the Queen of Sweden was ſeized with a pretty violent Fever, which confined her Majeſty for two or three Days to her Bed, but ſhe is at preſent perfectly well again. Sunday the 12th Inſtant this Court went into Mourning for the late Great Duke of Tuſcany, and the Duke of Orleans. The Weather continues ſtill very tempeſtuous and rainy, ſo that the Accounts from all Parts of this Kingdom are full of Complaints of the Want of their uſual Winter Conveyances.

Lisbon, Jan. 25, N. S. The 13th Inſtant at Night, Dom Miguel and Dom Joſeph, two natural Children of his late Portugueze Majeſty King Peter, whom he had legitimated, with 12 or 14 of their Attendants, returning from the other Side of the River where they had been a ſhooting, a ſudden Guſt of Wind overſet their Boat. Dom Joſeph with great Preſence of Mind got upon the Keel of it when overturn'd, and by the Help of a Cable of a Ship that was nigh, which he fortunately laid hold on, ſaved his Life; the reſt all periſhed. Dom Miguel was in the 25th Year of his Age, a Prince of an amiable Character, and univerſally lamented. He has left behind him his Lady Donna Luiſa Caſimira de Naſau and Souſa, Dutcheſs of Lafoens, Daughter of Charles Joſeph de Ligne, Prince of Ligne and of the Empire, and Heireſs of the Houſe of Arronches; with three Children, viz. Dom Pedro Duke of Lafoens, Dom Jocio, and Donna Joanna. The Court goes into Mourning upon this Occaſion for two Months. The 18th Inſtant, a French Ship of 50 Guns belonging to their India Company, put into this Port to repair her Maſts and Rigging which had ſuffered very much a few Days before by bad Weather. On the 19th His Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Lyme, Lord Vere Commander, arrived here from Port Mahon; as did a few Days before the Trya Sloop, Captain Toller from Cadiz.
